

Society of Ontario Adjudicators and Regulators

Membership Application/Renewal Form

SOAR is an organization for chairs, members and executive staff of administrative justice system agencies. Its goal is to enhance and improve the administrative justice system. SOAR has various activities, including training programs for newly appointed adjudicators and administrative staff, a major conference each year in November dealing with the latest developments in administrative justice and participation in policy initiatives of relevance to the direction and integrity of the administrative justice system. SOAR has created a website to facilitate an ongoing exchange of information and ideas on developments and initiatives in the field of administrative justice. We look forward to your membership in SOAR!
